Why Do Women Financially Bankroll Chauvinistic, Misogynistic Bible Religions that Vilify Women?

By Legesse Allyn

It was reported back in 2011 by GFK MRI, "Survey of the American Consumer," that 74.9% of women identified themselves as the primary shoppers for their households of purchasing decisions are made or influenced by women. This is true with homes, where in the case of married couples, women have the final say on design and therefore construction.

The word "civilization" is defined as "any complex society characterized by urban development" and "symbolic systems of communication (for example, writing systems)." Well, guess what? Women invented that!

You see, for likely millions of years and in ancient days, then as today, women were the primary providers. Women not only provided food in their homes, but also in marketplaces women were the primary merchants. Women were not only the primary providers of produce and goods to shoppers, but before they all went home at the end of the day, they exchanged the remaining produce and goods among themselves for the needs of their families at home.

Women Are the Traditional Designers of Homes

And as for the homes themselves, women owned homes... not men. The fact is, due to high infant mortality rates and to keep populations thriving, it was critical for men to maintain multiple families, yes, with multiple wives. This left men to go from home to home, meaning that women have always been "head of household" -- not men. It also means that when a home was designed and built, it was the women who determined the design and construction. This was likely the case for millions of years.

Fast forward to ancient Egypt, the mother of civilization...

Continuing their role in home design and construction, it was ancient Egyptian women who naturally determined design and construction of buildings. In fact, the women of ancient Egypt were responsible for the original commercial commerce center that led to today's urban centers. Therefore, when you look at ancient Egyptian buildings, monuments, temples, palaces and mortuary centers, yes, it is likely that women either were directly responsible for the design and construction or had a major influence of it.

Women Invented Writing

Not only is a woman, Swaswu (Egyptologists: Sheshat) attributed to the invention and initial teaching of writing (the name meaning "grammar"), but she is also attributed by Egyptologists as having directly influenced mathematics and architecture, too. This underscores the importance of women in development of civilization itself.

Women Invented Commercial Commerce

And who is attributed to the first urban ancient Egyptian commerce center? Her name is Megabit (Egyptologists: Nekhbet), a name whose root word, megbi, means "food." Yes, here again, as women for millions of years were the primary merchants of produce and goods in marketplaces, they were naturally in the position of first developing urban centers, which they did in ancient Egypt. Egyptologists attribute Megabit with ancient Egypt's first city, Megbi, (Egyptologists: Nekheb), the "City of Food."

Because of both Swaswu and Megabit, today we have sprawling urban centers. This reality has been lost over the past 2000 years, as men usurped the natural authority of women to nourish populations and regulate the environment. Worse, it was with Bible religion that women were first vilified 2000 years ago -- with the mistranslations of the underlying text of the Bible. Yes, the very writing technology that women gave as a gift to the world was used against them, resulting in the coup 2000 years ago engineered against women and their control of the world by the ancient Roman military, all for the purpose of plundering the Middle East Egypt region's grain.

Bible Religions Call for the Silencing and Subjugation of Women

Today, 2000 years later, women financially bankroll Bible religion that originated their subjugation and keep them subjugated, as the Bible's 1st Timothy 2:9-14 says...

9. In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

10. But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

11. Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.

12. But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

13. For Adam was first formed, then Eve.

14. And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.

As a woman, how can you possibly accept a religion that calls for your silence and strict subjugation to 2 billion of the world's men?

The worst part about 1st Timothy 2:9-14 is that it really doesn't say that. The ancient Roman military intentionally mistranslated the underlying 3400-year-old ancient Egyptian Middle East Egypt farm and commerce reports into a false religion to divide and conquer Egypt for it's Middle East grain. And women were their first target!

Women Are Bankrolling Bible Religions That Vilify Them

Again, as a woman how can you possibly accept this commonly accepted translation and bankroll the religion that vilifies and subjugates you? A religion which demands that...

- Women cannot wear beautiful clothes, jewelry and hairstyles (lest they want jobs and business that compete with men);
- Women are forbidden from teaching (lest they teach girls to compete with men);
- Women must shut up and be silent (lest they disagree with men's hoarding and gambling away of the world's resources and ruin of the environment);
- Women must be in subjugation to men (lest they enforce their millions years-old natural roles as controllers of commerce, primary distributors of natural resources and regulators of the environment).

In 2014, in a five-year study released in 2013, an article by Ruth Graham on website FastCompany.com reports that it was estimated “tithers” -- Christians who donate 10% or more of their income to church or charity -- contribute more than $50 billion a year. Add to that, an article by Karen Garst on website FaithlessFeminist.com reports that a U.S. Congregational Study concluded that as a whole, church attendance is 61% female compared to 39% male and based on a Gallop poll, approximately 22 million more women attend church every week than men.

Do the math, and you'll see 61% of $50 billion amounts to $30 billion women are likely bankrolling the chauvinistic, misogynist Christian faith of the Bible alone, a religion that equates women to no less than prostitutes (Mary Magdalene) and thieves (Eve). How is this possible that women would support and bankroll with $30 billion in the US alone, Bible religions solidly against them?

And traitorous men, how can you accept this outrageous trouncing and vilifying of your own women?
